Match summary

Our first Midland league match of the 2025 season was played on Links golf course at Newmarket and a fine day it turned out to be. The morning session went the way of Cambridgeshire despite a strong top end showing from our pairs 2.5 to 3.5 with everyone finding it difficult to judge the fairway bounces due to a rainless 6 weeks! The sun and drying easterly wind continued to prevail all day but thankfully the greens were a lot more appetising although reading the slopes was also a challenge. The afternoon matches were all very close but 5 Notts pairs found a way to bring victory home and to register a final result of 12.5 to 5.5.

Every Nottinghamshire pair had the pleasure of contributing with at least one win, with Banks and Clarke leading the way with a double on the day. Well played team and on to the next match in 6 days time.
